“ This is belated but I only received the details today. My deepest condolences go to John's family. He will be missed. As Staff Representative for the United Steelworkers in Canada, I negotiated twice across the table from John. Both times we were successful in reaching an agreement in difficult circumstances. John was an excellent negotiator who knew how to get a deal. He was a person of great decency and integrity and that's why he earned the trust of the bargaining committee. Always a professional, he was also friendly, kind, and charming. I will miss him, and offer my prayers to his loved ones. Rest in peace John.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I send condolences for John's passing. He was a diamond in the rough for sure. We spent many hours talking about how to make our workplace better. His knack for negotiating was very special. And he loves poker. All those games at his kitchen table will stick in my memory forever. To Mary Alice, Lauren, and the family, my heart grieves with you. Godspeed, John Foy.

“ Mary Alice, I am very sorry to hear about John. I considered him to be a very good friend. I've had him on my mind for a month off and on and meant to try to get in touch with him and didn't. Oh how sorry I am. He will be missed. I hope you are doing well.

I'm sorry I missed the service also.
