“ Judy and I met in my back yard on a sunny day 55 years ago over a dispute between our 6 little boys. Somehow, instead of becoming adversaries on that day, we became friends . . . Very best friends! That friendship has endured through both laughter and tears from that day to this. I will miss you my friend, but not for long I think, for soon I will see you in heaven. God bless. ”

“ Judy I know you are in heaven. You blessed my life . I enjoyed my time with you and Joel.

*I know you left our hearts hurting because you left us. You were such an angel. I will see you again. You have no pain. Rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior. I love you ,
