All the years we have spent together. Your mom took me in as her own. I was her 3rd child and Tammy would get so mad at us cause we were so mischievous. The memories will never fade cause I definitely have a lifetime worth. You have always made sure I was ok, and never left my side when Markisha passed. You would still come over and share stuff with me but you never wanted to disappoint me . You would always say how strong i am but in honestly your definitely stronger than me. You will be missed in so many ways “ *Spending the night when you all lived in Del Rio . It was Tammy, Julie and me (Cheryl) or (Cheryl Ann) to other school mates that know me better by my FULL NAME lol. I was in love at the time with their cousin Raymond Romines. He had the prettiest blue eyes!!

Julie, love her little soul, bugged the daylights out of that boy I KNOW, SHE HAD TO. I made an excuse to get to be able for a little while at least to spend the night with Tammy and Julie about once a week. Needless to say, Raymond Romines was like my boyfriend, once we kissed that summer we was kids, I was over the moon!!! I owe all my thanks to my sweet friend Jules!! 💕You'll be forever missed!! Until next time!!! 💕*
