“ Amy, Chad and family, please know you are in our thoughts and prayers now and in the difficult days ahead. It is difficult to put in a few lines the love and respect I had for your Mom. From the day I started working at National Bank, June was a mentor and friend. There will always be a special place in my heart for this "Beautiful Lady". May God fill your hearts and give you comfort with all your beautiful memories.

“ Amy, I was so saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. Loss of a loved one is always difficult, but the loss of a mother leaves an empty place in the heart that no one else can fill. In the days ahead, just remember that death is only a turning of us over from "this time" to "eternity" where she will live on forever. Praying for your comfort and peace.

Love ya,
