“ Ah, sweet Sue. I have an image of you in my mind...it was my first visit to Cosby with Joy at Thanksgiving in 1978. We were sitting at breakfast...eating Mamaw's biscuits. We decided that Kevin should try buttermilk. He took a big gulp and instantly spewed up across the entire table. We laughed until we cried. That smile of yours...lit up the room. You were shy but your smile was contagious and electric! Every time I ever saw you it was your smile that welcomed me. It reminds me of these words "When my life's work has ended and I cross the swelling tide, when the bright and glorious morning I shall see; I shall know my redeemer when I reach the other side and his smile will be the first to welcome me." I just bet you're smiling and now safe In His arms. I am so glad so knew you. Rest sweetly sweet Sue.

My memories of you are filled with so much joy and laughter. Our years at Smoky Mountain Elementary was the best. We were at each other's houses at least 3 or more times each week. You were one of my best friends. God received a special angel when you left this world.. You will be missed. Praying 🙏 for your family.
