“ This is written in April 2021. I just heard of Ken’s passing. He was my closest friend at Jackson Elementary School in Altadena, California. He father taught me golf, which I still play today. Kenny and I took judo classes together after he and I were roughed up a bit by older kids. We were in Boy Scouts together, Troop 41 in Pasadena. Gee, we spent a lot of time together. He came to a high school reunion and few years ago and we shared some memories. The John Muir High class of 1965 still had reunions up until COVID, so it’s been a while since I last saw him. RIP, Kenny. Your old friend George still remembers our youth together.
