“ Hello guys im so sorry to hear this I still dont know what happened!! Well let me introduce myself again its been a long time since I spent the night a few different times.. This is Elizabeth Askew.. Ill never forget the lil tint pig that was so cute it ran everywhere! I remembered telling my mom and dad bout it when I got home that next day, and begging to get me one.. Crystal was a very kind person, pure at heart.. She was a great friend. Not caring what the IN crew had to say , if she was your friend ,then she was your friend.. I just hate we parted ways as life went on, we grew up, moved away, as happens in life.And we always think were gonna make it back before anything bad happens, but then we see these obituaries, and it makes you start thinking bout just how short life can be, how we never know when our journey will end , she was so young, well I say young but me and her are the same age, and we are not old.. It sure does make you start thinking.Again IM so sorry for your loss. I think this is our 8th grade school pictures from Bridgeport Elementary, we played basketball together. We were so much more than just friends we were teammates. and to anyone that has been there YOU understand its more than classmates, its teammates, its friends, its knowing you can trust that person to have your back. and that was her she always had your back!! Crystal was always a bright light in the darkness Im so glad to have went all thru school with you, K-8th then High School..She was so smart. Crystal Dawn Ball you will be sadly missed, R.I.P, my dear ol friend, Always, E .Askew
