“ When I reflect on memory of Lucy, I see a woman who lived her life reflecting the love of our Savior Jesus Christ. Lucy was steadfast in her faithfulness, kindness, goodness, patience, generosity and compassion. I am thankful to God for her and who she meant to me in my walk of faith. I am sad that God has called another humble and loyal child of His home yet I am filled with Joy for Lucy. With Love and Prayer for family. Jane Ann Poe

My deepest sympathy to her family. Lucy did so many kind things for me. Our CCHS class of '54 would never have had so many joyous reunions but for Lucy's hard work and persistence. Rest in peace, Dear Friend.

“ My first memory of Lucy is at the old First Baptist Church on Easter Sunday in the mid-1950s. She wore the most beautiful yellow and black ensemble complete with a stunning hat. I thought she was from Hollywood. I also remember attending her wedding to JC and Preston Moore bringing her portrait to the reception. It goes without saying she was a beautiful bride. In later years we renewed our friendship at First United Methodist Church. Lucy was as beautiful inside as out and will be sorely missed.

Many memories of time spent with you as children. I would tag along to care for the both of you while Lucy and JC would be attending church meetings. If there is one thing I have learned in this world today is how grateful to have been a part of the Chestnut Hill Community. Lucy was a great Christian lady and set the bar high for all of us to follow in her footsteps. Prayers for all the Thornton and Morgan families.

“ Jay, Keith and family, I have too many memories of your sweet Mom to pick only one. She was a precious lady with a sweet soul. I'm blessed to have known and loved her dearly. My world is a little dimmer with her light gone. But I can rejoice that she now hears perfectly, can eat anything she wants, and is at peace sitting at Jesus's feet. Love and continued prayers.
