My precious child

I love you and would never leave you.

During your times of trial and suffering

When you see only one set of footprints,

It was then that I carried you.

“ Mama.... I only thought that I knew what "heartbroken" felt like💔. It has been almost a month now, and the tears keep pouring 😭. 46 years of memories keep playing in my head like a movie and I can't turn them off. I miss you so much💔. The emptiness that I have in my 💜 will never go away. You were the BEST Mama and friend any kid could have asked for. I learned so much from you. I just hope that I will someday be as strong and brave as you. I will always love you and I know that we will see each other again❤️... You have ALWAYS been my hero.... MY WONDER WOMAN!💔😭 Love you bunches & bunches....

Martha was like a sister to me and even though we didn't get to spend a lot of time together in recent years, I will miss her deeply. I can only hope when it's my time to go that I can show just half the bravery, grace and dignity Martha did.

You know I loved her, just did not want to interfere with the relationship my daughter had with her. Think about this. Shut her eyes in pain and exhaustion to view the face of our Savior, then her parents and all she loved that also knew God.. love you all and know the pain.

Martha was a beautiful woman, inside and out. It was an honor and pleasure knowing her and her family through the end of her journey. She was a classy lady. I wished I had known her longer, but I am grateful for the short time I knew her. Prayers for her precious family. She was so proud of each of you. Continued prayer during this difficult time.
