

Maxine W. Black

March 18, 1953 - November 25, 2021

Maxine W. Black, age 68 of Hartford, passed away Thursday, November 25, 2021. Hall, brothers Alek and Charlie Williams, and special friends Fred and Madge Renner. “ Teresa and family sorry for your loss of your mom and like you said leave it to her to out do Arlie and Stacey I pray God wraps you're hearts with his love and kindness. She was of the most loving and honest people I have ever known I admired her for both but her honest opinion about things taught me that it's okay to have a different opinion than other's and if they don't like it who cares she was a one of a kind I will miss her and that sense of humor I loved her like she was family. “ So sorry for your loss, of this loved one. I know that she must have been special to you all. She was special to me too! I have known her and her family (some of them), for about 22 years . I always got a hug from her . I had some issues with cancer for several years, and she always wanted to know how I was doing, and I would ask her how she was doing. She has fixed me food several times at the Fox Den a lot of times, and I would always have a good meal and good conversation with her. She was a special , caring person. I will miss her, and our talks. I so wish that she had beat this cancer. I know she was a tough one. I will never forget her, or her family for helping me more than she knows. Fly high Maxine, and true. Straight to you loved ones there waiting. jdc(Jerry D. Carmack, Bethpage, TN. 37022)

“ Linda and I are deeply saddened at the loss of our friend Maxine. There was not a morning at the Fox Den that she did not brighten all of our lives. Everyone at the restaurant.
