“Maxine and Rabon - such dear neighbors, friends and partners in the Lord. Their sacrificial love for the Lord was manifested in many ways. By partnering with us, for years they took care of our home while we were missionaries in China. Maxine cut many clippings from our rose bushes and passed them all around the area with the stipulation that the recipients pray for us. She was responsible for her church "adopting" us by faithfully lifting us up in prayer. She and Rabon welcomed our Chinese "kids" with open arms when they visited and developed an instant and deep bond with John. A picture of the five of us smiles to everyone who walks into our family room. Her long chats and Rabon's "luv yu" will continue when we join them with Jesus. No words can express our gratitude and the deep love we have for them! We will be praying for all those who love her and Rabon, knowing and sharing the part that's missing with their parting, but rejoicing for them because they are with their Lord!
