“ Myrtle was one of my favorite people. I have so many memories of sitting with her at church writing notes,talking about "days gone by" and the peace of knowing there is a better place. Sitting in the living room at her house and doing remembers. She dearly loved her family and talking about how proud she was of her children,and all her grandchildren. She loved to talk about the reunion in heaven and how she knew that she'd be able to see her daddy and mama again as well as Joe and Diane and all those who are waiting for us to join them. I KNOW without a doubt that Myrtle is able to hear ,and at this very second she is with those she loved and is having the peace that only God can give to those who,like Myrtle,have placed their trust in Him.I love you Myrtle always have,always will.See you soon !!! Thank you for loving me and all you came in contact with on this side of heaven ,
