

Ollie Mae Swagerty

January 11, 1947 - March 13, 2024

Ollie Mae Swagerty was born on January 11, 1947 in Newport, Tennessee, and she departed this earthly realm, at her home surrounded by family on March 13, 2024. She was raised in Newport in the Rock City community and was an avid green thumb and can be seen even in her Sunday best pulling weeds from her flower bed. Also was remembered, from sun up to sun down she was grooming her yard & preparing flowers for the sick and those shut in and everyone that loved her beautiful flower arrangements. A bootleg of a seamstress that could create fashions out of nothing in a minute.

She worked at Plants in Newport, Electro-Voice and Firestone as a supervisor for many years, before she went to Cosmetology School, Tennessee School of Beauty. Then Ollie went to owning her own Little Ollies Hair Affair Salon, and then transitioning to opening her own Child Day-Care Center Little Ollies Sugar-Spice. She attended Tanner High and was a member of True Light Holiness Church in Newport, TN and then New Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death her mother, Emma Jean Haney; father, Horace Haney; brothers and sisters, Donald Edward "Don-Don" Haney, Mary "Elizabeth" Haney, Horace Haney, Horace Maurice "Reece" Haney, David "Big Jim" Haney, Jenni Lee Carter, Laythaniel "Blue" Haney, and Edward "Drake" Haney.

She is survived by her brother, Johnny (Jannette) Haney; sister, Paula Wallington (late Frank Sr.); also survived by her four children; Deana Juana
