

Paralee Costner Shultz

July 3, 1941 - March 22, 2025

Paralee Shultz, a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Our Mamie. She passed away peacefully with her family by her side on March 22nd. She opened her home and ensured anyone that came by would never go hungry. They say once you pass your brain lives on for 7 minutes replaying the happiest and most important memories in your life. Her family takes great comfort in knowing her memories were filled with her family still here and the family she is going to meet. Paralee was of the Methodist faith and knew where she was going. She was a member of Caton's Grove Methodist Church. She is no longer in pain and is dwelling the house of the Lord with those called home before her. Part of her family is reunited once again. We will continue to share our memories and love of her until we can all be together. Her presence will be dearly missed.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Joel and Ritta Costner; husband Kenneth Shultz; son, David Shultz and several other family members.

She is survived by her brother, Lynn (Carolyn) Costner of Cosby Tennessee; daughter Anita Shultz of Cosby; Grandson, Michael McGrath of Cosby; Granddaughter, Karson Keller of Knoxville; and Great-grand-children, Danyka and Dallas McGrath of Maryville. Along with several cousins, other family members, and many friends.

A small service will be held March 30th at Caton's Grove Church, 4475 WILDWOOD DRIVE COSBY, Tennessee, 37722 at 9:30 am.

Family and friends may sign the guest register
