

Patricia Dawn Adams LaBeau

July 1, 1942 - March 16, 2007

Patricia Dawn Adams LeBeau, of Newport, Tennessee, died at her home on Friday, 16th of March, 2007. Born in Raleigh, N.C., on July 1, 1942, she was predeceased by her paternal grandparents, Della and D.G. Adams and her maternal grandparents, Mary and Joseph Lee, by her parents, Hazel and Wendell ("Winkie") Adams, and by her sister, Wenda Jean Adams.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Dr. Richard LeBeau, of the home, and by one daughter, Virginia Lynn Hess of Colorado Springs, Colorado, by one son, Martin Lee Murray, of Ennis, Texas and his wife, Marsha, who have four children, Brent, Brittany, Adam and Ashely. Pat is also survived by her sister, Mary Lee Adams Baucom and husband, Reverend Jim Baucom, a Baptist minister, of Radford, Virginia.

Pat graduated from Greensboro Senior High School and attended UNC at Greensboro. A deeply spiritual woman, she sought and added to the beauty she found in life. Her career was in arts and crafts, beginning as she owned and operated Calico Crossroads in Burlington, NC, where she taught many classes in arts and crafts. This led to her employment by the Bob Ross Company, serving as a teacher, eventually taking her around the world setting up art studios and personally running a studio in New Smyrna Beach, Florida. Until recently, Pat taught art classes in North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee, traveling from her home in the Tennessee mountains where she had good friends and neighbors.

Eastern Star Service, a memorial service of celebration of her life will be held at her home, 2708 Bogard Road, Newport, Tennessee, on Monday, March 19, 2007 at 7:00 pm. The family will receive friends from 5-7 pm Monday at her home prior to the memorial service. The family is grateful to all who loved and cared for Pat.

Memorials may be made to Smoky Mountain Home Health & Hospice, 222 Heritage Blvd, Newport, TN 37821.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Dawn Adams LaBeau

November 17, 2022 at 06:00 PM

“ Rick, May your heart be at peace at this difficult time. I am so sorry I did not get the chance to meet Pat, however, I know she was a wonderful woman from seeing her beautiful paintings. I want to thank you for continuing to teach your students as we

Sherry Wolfe - March 22, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Richard. Our condolences to you on the loss of you beloved wife Patricia. She shared her passion of art and her love of life with many and will be greatly missed by those whose lives she touched. Many people leave footprints in the sand but she left her f

Ron Short - March 20, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ My condolences to the family. I would like to have known Patricia in better times. She seemed to be a beautiful lady. Judy

Judy Smith - Hospice volunteer - March 19, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Richard We are sorry for not being able to attend your wife's service. My husband is sick and I had to work late.I am filling in at work for a lady who's husband is in the last stages of cancer. Please know that we are here for you, and if you need u

Rickey and Crystal Ogle - March 19, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BT

“ Just wanted to pass along our sympathies to you and the family. Pat is in a much better place at this time. I am unable to visit as I am still in West Virginia. Will see you later.

-----
Bill & Janet Thomason - March 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ To the husband and family of Pat, please accept our sincere sympathy for your loss. We have complete faith that she has found peace in God. Bless you. Bea and Joe Cox

-----
Bea Cox - March 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CZ

“ Rick and Family I am very sorry for the loss of your beloved Pat. I only had a brief time to set under her painting instruction and be acquainted with her. My thoughts and prayers are with you tomorrow and for the days to come. God is able to sustain you

-----
Charlene Zills - March 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM

FP

“ Patricia Dawn Adams LaBeau

-----
fredia pruit - March 16, 2007 at 12:00 AM