“ Pauline was my mother's first cousin, and I had two wonderful visits with her a few years ago. We also used to speak on the phone. She was lovely in every way--her manner, her appearance, and in the way she treated others. I will never forget her intelligence, her devotion to family, or her kindness. I will miss her. But I know she's having a beautiful reunion with all the other Derricks! ”

“ Growing up with Debbie Thornton Landers as my best friend I thought of Pauline as my aunt also. I have many fond memories of Abe, Reva, Pauline, and all the Derrick family. I too have a dance story. Best I can remember Abe and Pauline took Debbie and I to be a dance hall in Sandy Ridge many years ago. Let's just say we showed them how to clog. A life well lived. Thoughts and prayers to Tim and family.
