“ Rev. Bobby Samples was a real friend to me and my family. I always loved when he was able to visit the church where I'm a member at Northside Baptist Church in Morristown. I really enjoyed his preaching especially the last time he preached at Northside while he was recuperating from chemo treatments from his recent bout with cancer. I always loved running into him at Lois's Restaurant in Newport where he always managed to tell me that he had eat it all and I should just go somewhere else. Bobby your at rest now but I'll see you again real soon because eternity is getting closer everyday especially for all of God's children. See you soon your brother in Christ and friend!
