“ Rick was a wonderful friend & a terrific neighbor. We met him & his parents when we first arrived in TN. They welcomed us with open arms. He was so much fun on the Haunted Holler Hayrides. We enjoyed hearing him play with his kids throughout the many years living next door. There is an empty place now in the holler. But his memory will always be here.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Rick's passing. He was the first person that we met when we bought property down the road from him, and was always a friendly face that we were so happy to see each time we were down that way. Always willing to lend a hand, visit for a spell, or wave as he drove past. We will surely miss him! Deepest sympathies to all of his family and friends. John, Lisa, Adam and Sarah Payne

“ It is so hard to believe that Ricky has passed away. He will certainly be missed at the Church and in our family. Ricky was definitely a "Jack of All Trades". It is very evident that Ricky had many, many, friends from just reading the messages on this Tribute Wall. We have lost a very good friend and cousin. Please accept our sincere condolences.

“ Rick was one of those rare people who was a friend to everyone. He was wise and kind. My heart breaks for his family. We worked together at FPC for many years. One evening he had been over at the us garage and had found a kitten in the grease pit. It was covered with grease and was about 6 weeks old. He was sure that I needed the kitten! Thankfully, it was a very quiet evening. I washed and washed and washed the kitten until there was no grease left. And I took her home. Her name was Carly. Another time when we actually did need a barn cat, he knew of a stray adult cat and helped me meet the man who was feeding the cat. We've had that cat over 10 years, now. He is an excellent barn cat. There is never a mouse in the feed! His name is Sterling because of his beautiful silver fur. I think of Rick everyday when the cat plays with the dogs when we walk. My husband and I feel honored to have had Rick in our lives

“ He was a good friend to my dad, Harry Denton and cousin, Arvin Ledford. He messaged me in the spring about possibly mowing daddy's lawn and reminded me of the time when he ran Avery's store. Apparently my dad wasn't too happy with my choice of boyfriends because he wanted your dad to take me out. My dad offered him a cord of wood. Never happened but it was something to look back and laugh about. The boyfriend has been my husband for 42 years.
