“ My deepest sympathy for the loss of Robert Williams. I know him as Gene and Cotton's brother. He took me on the four wheeler to visit the 'thinking spot' which was where I'm told Gene had his visits to work on things. It's the most beautiful spot just beyond the grave yard. He helped get the grave stone there for my Mom who is buried next to Gene. And one day much to my surprise, i had called and said I was visiting and would go to the cemetary. To my delight, the cemetary was well taken care of and my Mom and Gene had flowers to their graves too. Thank you Williams family. You don't really know me but I learned to appreciate 'the old ways' meaning people look out for each other and help when they can. To Rob, I'm glad we met and I'll see you again someday.
