“ He dumped a dumpster or gallon ketchup cans on this ramp coming up from basement at Conagra, I stopped to help him pick them up & we were friends ever since. Miss him. He loved his parents so much, friends & loved to cook. Prayers for his family.

“ 11 years. That's how long I've been able to have Todd in my life. Some years better than others. I loved you for all you were. Stubbornness and all. My heart aches for your family and I send my deepest condolences and prayers always. Todd lit up when he would talk about his parents - they were his everything. I love you dear, rest peacefully. Until we meet again ❤️

“ While I never personally met Todd, my best friend since 5th Grade was his wonderful Mom, Diane. I heard a lot of wonderful stories through the years about Todd and Diane and Roger were so very proud of him and loved him very much. My sincere prayers and thoughts go out to Todd's family and friends. I wish I got to meet him.
