“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all !
Ronnie has touched so many lives, especially Hoover's and mine, being our adult Sunday School teacher. I loved playing the piano and him playing his mandolin, with the rest of the musicians at church. He will surely be missed in more ways than we all will ever realize. I can hear him calling to me Vida lou, Vida lou, I will always remember that smile and laugh he was precious to us all. We love you all dearly, and pray that God will Comfort you now and in days ahead. Love, Vida & Hoover and Family

“ Linda and family, mom and I are so sorry to hear about Ronnie. He was always a dear friend to mom in school and such a joy for me to get to see and talk to at the stockyard. He always told me stories about mom and dad from school and even told me I looked just like mom when they were in school, which meant a lot. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ We are so sorry about Ronnie. He was a wonderful person and like a family member. He was the type of person to help you without having to asked. He will be missed by everyone that knew him. We were sad we couldn't be there tonight because we are in Nashville helping a family member after surgery. We will keep your family in our prayers.
