Roy Lee Frazier

January 28, 1952 – March 16, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved Roy Lee Frazier, who left this world on Sunday, March 16, 2025, at 9:00 AM in Atlanta, Georgia. At 73 years old, Roy's journey on this earth came to a peaceful close, but his love, wisdom, and warmth will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew him.

Roy was a man of quiet strength, boundless kindness, and unwavering devotion to his family. He built a life filled with love, laughter, and cherished moments, leaving an indelible mark on all who were blessed to know him. His generosity knew no limits, and his presence could bring comfort and reassurance in even the darkest of times.

He is preceded in death by his beloved grandparents, Howard and Viola Frazier, his mother, Pauline Frazier-Click, his uncle, Eddie Frazier, and his dear sister, Vivian Click-Buchanan. Their spirits now welcome him home, embracing him with love and peace.

Roy leaves behind a devoted family who will carry on his legacy of love and kindness. He is survived by his loving wife of 34 years, Evelyn Frazier, who stood by his side through life's joys and trials with unwavering love. His son, Dustin Frazier, and his daughter, Crystal Moore, will forever hold his guidance and wisdom close to their hearts. He was a proud and caring father-in-law to Michael Shawn Moore Jr., and a cherished grandfather to his six grandchildren, who were his greatest joy and light.

He is also survived by his aunts, Lou Keller and Hazel Jenkins of Cosby, and his cousins, Doyle Wayne Ball and Lynn Ball of Sevierville. His sister, Joyce Click-Simpkins of Milner, Georgia, and his brother, Walter Click, along with his wife, Glenda Click of Lincolnton, North Carolina, will miss his steady presence and kind spirit. Roy also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and extended family members, each of whom he loved deeply.

Roy's love for his family was endless, and his kindness knew no boundaries. He will be remembered for his gentle heart, his quiet wisdom, and the way he made those around him feel valued and loved. His legacy will live on in the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that Roy's love will continue to guide us. He is not truly gone—he lives on in the stories we share, the memories we hold dear, and the love he instilled in each of us.

He will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

His family will receive friends Saturday March 22nd 11am-1pm at Manes Funeral with a graveside service following at 1:30pm in Faubian Cemetery with Rev. Robert Ball officiating.

Family and friends may sign the guest register online at: www.manesfuneralhome.com.

“ Roy was a blessing to many people, but we were blessed to get to call him brother. I will miss your phone calls, you always had time to call me and let me know what was going on in your life, and I will miss your jokes, you always had us laughing. Speaking of blessings, I was never so blessed as when I went to see you in the hospital, when you called your nurse to come into your room, and said, "I just wanted you to meet my sister." An even greater blessing was when you said you had asked Jesus into your life, and then the last words you said to me was "I Love You." Rest in peace Roy Lee, and we will be seeing you soon. Love and prayers to all of your sweet family. Joyce & Family

“ Evelyn Jane ,Crystal and Dustin , I'm very sorry about the passing of Roy and he will be missed by many people including me and my children and my Mom. He was one of a kind and a very kind hearted man .. He would buy me supper when we running around back in the 80's if I didn't have enough money.. He always called me PAC-WOMAN because he couldn't remember my name. Anyway I could tell all kinds of stories before they were married and after.. I was in their wedding and Evelyn Jane was in mine ... Roy was always so good to Evelyn Jane -every time we all went too Walmart he would always sneak and surprise her with a little gift of LOVE when we got to the car .. I'm gonna miss that ole country man in his overhauls !! His kids were born and they were the light of his life, he would come to work and he'd say look here PAC-Woman at my new pictures and he would have a wallet full ... I know he is with JESUS now because me and JANE talk to him a lot about it and he finally got to he really cared,, years and years ago he didn't have much interest but believe me GOD DOES ANSWER PRAYERS. He would tell us HIM AND JESUS HAD WORKED EVERYTHING OUT AND SALVATION HE HAD AND HEAVEN HE WAS BOUND!! SEE YA SOON ROY †
♥️† I LOVE YOU TOO THE MOON AND BACK EVELYN JANE AND THAT GOES FOR CRYSTAL AND DUSTIN TOO ... I COULD WRITE A BOOK ON THE EXCITEMENT WE ALL HAVE HAD OVER THE LAST 40 some years 😍😄😍❤️†♥️†🌹
