“ Ruble Clevenger was my uncle, however, he was more like my brother. We played all sports in the Bristol Tennessee and Virginia Industrial Leagues together, hunted and fished, and even shared vacation trips. We would sometimes watch the Vols play at Neyland Stadium or watch the games on TV at his house. We bet on the games, not for money, but for a chocolate pie... his favorite, and he usually won. I'll greatly miss my brother in Christ but by the grace of God I'll see him again in Heaven.
