Her spiritual journey began at the St. James Lutheran Church located in the southern part of Greene County, Tennessee. She then became a member of Long Creek Christian Church where she attended as a young married woman and mother. Upon moving to Newport, she and her family attended First Christian Church. She was a charter member of English Mountain Christian Church, beginning in 1967, where she served in a variety of capacities, including but not limited to Sunday School Teacher, Vice-President then President of the Women's Group, and Vacation Bible School Teacher. “ When I was growing up , the ladies of EMCC took me under their wings, Ruth being one of them. Very sweet and kind. My biggest memory was her singing. She had a beautiful voice.

“ Ruth was a good and faithful servant and such a sweet lady. She loved English Mountain Christian Church and we loved her. She was a favorite at our potlucks bringing her delicious pies! And I couldn't thank the members at EMCC enough for all they did for her too, mainly the years someone would be sure she had transportation to Church and 5th Sunday sings. She especially loved going to LongCreekChristian Church. She was a wonderful SS teacher. EMCC won't be the same without Ruth's sweet smile and hugs. She was loved and I'm forever grateful she came into my life. God bless you, Donnie, you will definitely miss her the most, she felt you hung the moon!

“ Donnie, Mike and I are so very sorry to learn that your sweet Mother has passed. We have such fond memories of those times she and your Dad visited you in Knoxville. No parents could have been prouder of their son, and you could not have loved and honored her any better. We know your pain of loss, and celebrate with you that she is finally home with her Savior and the loved ones she has missed. We love you, dear friend, and are praying for peace and hope.

“ As we are supposed to cry when a child is born, and rejoice when someone passes... I have did both in the passing of “My Queen”. I have cried because I will miss her dearly, yet I am rejoicing in knowing that she is at peace. She is with Ruby, which she missed so much. She is with our Lord and Savior! I can only imagine the smile on her face now! I’m thankful that God brought me to Wellington Manor, and I will forever be grateful that I had the opportunity to get to know, love, and care for “My Queen”. She was loved tremendously, and definitely will be missed!
