“ My deepest sympathy to Scottie’s family. Scottie was always special. We grew up and lived near her family in the 1960’s, went to Newport Church of God Bible school and CCHS. Creed was always our family favorite Taxi Driver! Danny Ray and my brother, Bobby Dean were best buddies. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Missy,
I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. I can still remember her climbing up in the back of the truck at the bank to help us. She was a very special person and especially a great Mother! You have been a very good daughter to her and I'm sure she loved and appreciated you for taking good care of her.
I did not know she had passed until today. I am so sorry I was not there for you at the funeral.
You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Really loved Scottie and her entire family. She was always so sweet to me and everyone else she knew. I occasionally had a meal with her and the family if Danny Ray and I popped in back in the 1970's. Nothing but good memories of her and Norman and their families.
