“ I really am at a loss for words but I will do my best. I will start of by saying it an honor and privilege to have been friends with Steve Miller. He was genuine, he was funny and man he sure loved giving me a hard time and I loved every minute of it. I will miss his laughter, his humor and most of all his advise. I have known Steve and his family my entire life. He absolutely loved his family and especially those grandkids. He was a true friend to all that knew him. Thank you for everything my friend.
