April 1, 1966 - July 14, 2023

SueAnn April Reese, born April 1, 1966, in Newport, Tennessee, passed away on July 14, 2023, in Knoxville, Tennessee. She was the only child of Margaret "Evelyn" Reese, who preceded SueAnn in death in 2019.

SueAnn was of the Christian faith. She graduated from the University of Tennessee, with a Bachelor Degree in Fine Art and a Bachelor Degree in English.

She was employed, for 19 years, by the Knox County Public Library, East Tennessee History Center, Calvin M. McClung Collection, where she had numerous close friends and coworkers. She enjoyed traveling, photography, painting, and of course, history, and her own family history.

SueAnn is survived by her dear, lifelong friend, Wendy (Donald) Drummer, who opened up her home for SueAnn during her final days. SueAnn is also survived by numerous cousins, several devoted co-workers, and friends who visited frequently. She was especially grateful for very caring neighbors in her Reidtown Community. Neighbor Ricki Joe Crumbley cared for Sue Ann's four cats, Dixie, Les, Raffy, and Priscilla.

“ Well, we both left Newport a long time ago. I love reading the comments from your friends in Knoxville. I am sad for the suffering you have gone through for some time now. Like always, by accident, I just found out after the fact that a friend / family had passed. I am very happy for you now that you are on your journey in the next realm. Knowing your love of what some call science fiction and what we know as Not science fiction I know you have been through your VOIR DIER and are in what some would call your orientation for your very exciting journey. Enjoy, enjoy, enjoy, enjoy. Tell your Mom and my Dad I said Hello. Dad comes around from time to time. To the Knoxville friends of Sue Ann, pay attention, listen, listen. Sue Ann will, from time to time, visit you. Love and respect for you Sue Ann. Nice Picture Girl. Ronnie

“ I'm heartbroken!

This beautiful human with such a loving spirit, wonderful sense of humor, abundance of intellect and quick wit will be truly missed. Working with you at the Beck Center was indeed a highlight in my life (neon pink to be exact -LOL) and the beginning of a lasting friendship. Ms. Evelyn and SueAnn, one of my favorite mother-daughter duos are together again. I love you and will miss you sweet friend!

“ SueAnn was a lovely person inside and out, with a vivacious, captivating, 500-watt smile. Articulate, soft-spoken, and quick-witted with a contagious laugh, her absence at McClung has been felt. The night sky will shine a little brighter with her star in it.

“ I met SueAnn when I was at UT and she hired me as a student worker in the Art Department Visual Resources Collection. I always loved chatting with her about movies, music, art and just life in general. I especially remember enjoying hearing about her study abroad experience, and the time her mom scored her a pair of Ugg boots at a thrift store. After I graduated, I ended up being hired in her position as she was leaving to take her job with the McClung Collection. We stayed in touch and I always appreciated being included as an honorary member in "the club" for dinners at PF Changs. She was just such a special person and we're all lucky to have known her. My heart is broken for Wendy, who was such a wonderful friend to her.

“ I wish you weren't gone. I miss you so much. We all miss you. And thank you, Wendy, for being the saint that you are. To the end, she knew she was not alone because of you. May we be half as good a person as you.
