“ There are no words. Only tears and many many prayers for the family. I remember when Tanner played basket ball with Tate. I always thought he was a very handsome young man with a beautiful smile. He always spoke to us when we saw him out and about. I'm sorry we did not make it to the funeral, but our hearts are hurting for you all. This is so unfair. Sending comfort and peace and prayers.

“ My memories of Tanner were through the eyes of a football coach as I watched him grow. His electric smile and natural ability always made me smile. His ability to get along with everyone was a blessing. I loved seeing him progress as a young man. I am deeply shaken by his death, and I pray for peace for his family. His family were all special to this old coach. Be encouraged that Tanner now rests in the bosom of Christ.
