“ Regina and Family, we are all so sorry to hear you’ve lost your Dad. I know it was expected but it’s still so sad. From what I hear, you were his shining light all these years, so for that we pray for Gods light to always shine on you. It was so nice to finally meet you! With Love, Joan Davis Jenkins and all the Family.

“ I remember as a little girl uncle Ted coming to my Granmom's house in NJ to visit. Uncle Ted would let us sit on his lap and pop wheelies in Granmom Barnes kitchen. He would often tease and ask us little kids if we were married and if we had any kids. We would laugh at his silliness say we're just kids, we're not old enough to have a family. We will miss you very much uncle Ted.
