My family and I are deeply saddened by the passing of Sister, Daisy, she was our sister indeed. We will miss her beautiful smile, her motherly care, her green thumb, her helpful ways, and just the genuineness of who she was. Daisy was "all around good people," the best friend that anyone could hope for and the essence of a Proverb 31 woman. We miss her today, we will miss her tomorrow, we will always miss her. To the family: I know that if you ask God to heal any and all grief in your heart and allow Him the time to do so, He will not only heal it but also make it whole again. We love yall and we will continue to pray for yall as well. Sis. Jackie Davis, Sis. Cathy Smith, and Bro. Curtis Smith

I am so sorry to hear the passing of Daisy. She was one of the most loving, giving, patient, family oriented and God seeking person that I know. She served her church and loved her Husband and Children and loved and took care of her grandchildren everyday. My prayers of comfort peace and strength go out to Daryl and her family. She will be missed!

“My heart has been absolutely broken over the passing of sweet, beautiful “ Gray Daisy”. I called her that as King & SirSir did. She would come in the school daily just to build me up and hug me. She was a true inspiration for me who gave me so much love. I love you forever Gray Daisy! I am praying for God to give Daryl, King, & SirSir strength. God sure made you as a bright life that changed lives. You sure changed mine. Heaven is one beautiful view. I love you forever! “Miss Kara”- Kara Ford

“ I remember Daisy most from the family reunions. She and Darryl would come in with all kinds of food and would be constantly busy making sure to get it ready for everyone to eat, especially the fish. She had a beautiful smile and was so much fun. I will miss her...I already do 💜

“ I attended Maury Middle with Daisy and also Jeff Co. High School, and I remember her as a magnificent basketball player. She could hit 3-point shots from outside the paint. Even though she was short, she could also drive the basket. This is a shock, as I did not know she was ill. Such a beauty inside and out, and she made a career as entrepreneur with her hairdressing skills creating beauty for others.

“*My Dearly Beloved Cousin Daisy, You were such a wonderful cousin to me and an incredible inspiration and support to our family reunions and other events. We are all heartbroken because you are no longer with us. We thought we'd have decades together with you, but you left us with so many peaceful and beautiful memories.
I will never forget the time you visited me in Washington, DC while you were still in high school. Your Dad, Curtis Branner, Sr and I took you sightseeing all over the DC Metro area riding the new subway system he had helped build. He was so proud to show you the city via the subway.
I'm also reminded of the time you won our family reunion "Random Acts of Kindness" contest. I was so blessed when I visited your home to deliver your prize. You, in turn, gifted my family with the most delicious filleted fish and strawberry boule you had canned.
We enjoyed both tremendously!
Another fond memory was just last year at the Flatwoods Homecoming. I heard this melodious voice behind me leading an old Negro spiritual song. I was curious who it was and was able to peep behind me to discover that it was you. I had no idea you had such a beautiful voice. I can imagine you now in the presence of the Lord gathered around the throne singing with the angelic host with that melodious voice of yours.
These beautiful memories of you will live on in my heart; though I will surely miss seeing you at our family reunions, you will never be forgotten. "Cousins are friends that will love you forever." Rest in power, my dearly beloved Daisy, we promise to carry on your legacy of love, kindness, and support for one another until we meet again.
I offer my sincerest condolences to all the Oliver, Dockery, and Ray families, I pray the peace of God, love of family and friends comfort you during this difficult time and the days ahead.
We Love You, Daisy, until we meet again, we pray your peaceful journey home 🙏❤️
Your Cousin,
