Carrie I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a good woman and always treated me like one of her own when I'd stay over. I know times are hard but just know you have an angel looking over you forever now.

“ I am so very sorry to read of Joyce's passing. We were playmates when I would visit my Papaw Hartsell in Carson Springs. He lived across the road from them. I have thought about Joyce many many times during the past years. Please accept my most sincerest condolence. I pray for God to give you peace and comfort now and in the days to come.
