“ I grew up around all the Askew family, they are an amazing family & neighbors... My heart breaks for your loss. Kim & Karen used to baby sit us. I always loved visiting their house, they always had beanie weenies-which were my favorite. Our little area will never be the same.... Lots of Love & Prayers from Berney Mountain 🙏❤️💔

“ We are very sorry to hear that Wayne passed.
Our family has lots of Wayne and Cecil stories that John has shared with us over the years. Funny stories, sad stores, funny tricks that they pulled on each other and others about the hard times growing up. They were a very close knit family when they were young.
Wayne and Cecil were the closest John ever had to brothers.
You all are in our thoughts and prayers .. love you all.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Wayne.
Maw & Paw Askew and all of their kids lived in a time that the only way to survive was hard work. Everyone had to do their part of the farm work and their daily chores, to be sure. But .. there must have always been time for horseplay and mischief. According to the stories that we have heard all of our lives, Wayne and Dad were always into something. To us it seemed like wonderful adventures .. up hill both ways, in the snow, all gas, no brakes .. just make sure Maw Askew and Mattie Rhea didn't find out!
Much love and prayers!
