“ Polly, I am so sorry to hear about Wayne passing away. He, Anna Mae and Hugh lived beside us when Joy and I were both born. And we were still neighbors when we both graduated high school. Wayne was like a brother to us. He would play with us all the time. He was the kindest most selfless man.....So soft spoken and a true gentleman. We have remained friends all of my 70 years. I will never forget my precious friend. Rest In Peace Wayne Shepherd. I will always have those memories in my heart forever. 💔

“ We sure will miss Bro.Wayne in Sunday School Class at West End. He was a man of few words, but he was faithful to God's House and his Sunday School Class. He's happy and healthy again enjoying the beauties of Heaven and reunited with his beloved wife, Martha. Love and prayers to his family, Bill and Jan McMahan

I am rejoicing for Wayne for I know he is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Wayne was a faithful servant to our Heavenly Father and was a meek, humble man and a true student of the Word. I loved he and Martha very much.

Our sincere condolences to Wayne's relatives and close friends. He was a neighbor and it was always a pleasure to speak with he and Martha when they walked in the neighborhood. As others have stated here, he was always kind and soft spoken, and one always had a warm feeling after talking with him. I know they are at peace together again in Heaven.
