“ My deepest condolences to the Hicks family. Having known Bill and Diana for over forty years the memories are many and some join the ranks of so tales. Bill will always be dear in memory to me for the many wonderful visits which included walks on the farm, shared meals in the home and love of nature. To this day I still use some of Bill's recipes. Diana and family, my love and prayers are with you.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. Early in my teaching career Bill was a mentor who modeled the importance of kindness and empathy for the needs of students. About fifty years later I still recall how calmly he dealt with the trials of classroom difficulties. So sorry for your loss

“ I've only known Bill for 3 years since 2020 when he signed me up to sell at the Newport Farmers Market but he & Diana welcomed me to their home & farm where I now have precious memories of picking vegetables, making muscadine jam, pickles & sauerkraut. We shared a love of cooking & eating & I loved to hear him tell me of the good old days of his growing up right there on the land he lived on. He was interesting & funny & kind & loved his family & his kitty Sylvester. The world has lost a wonderful human being & I have lost a dear, sweet friend.

“ I remember walking through the trees and visiting the old house with Bill. There was also a particular time we shattered a tall mirror in your basement (sorry about that). Much love to you, Diana!

“ I hated to read that Bill had passed away! Although we hadn't visited in quite some time, he was my teaching buddy! Loved eating his popcorn in the hallway as we chatted between classes as we “hall monitored!” He, Glenn Anders, Dorothy Gregg, and Linda McElhaney took me “under their wings” when I first started teaching! He was a good man and cared about his students. I think he was pretty fond of his family, also!! Thinking of all of you!!
