“ Willis..... I am so sorry to hear about your mother passing away. I'm very thankful you all were there with her in her last days. What more could a loved one wish for? Your mother cared for many people that couldn't care for themselves, and what a wonderful gift that was to them and their families. I love you my friend. I am praying for your family during this heartbreaking time. God be with you all 💔 and give you comfort and peace.
