“ Aunt Zelma was always so wonderful to us. She is the last of that generation of Williamson children. Her brother Bill died less than a year ago. Her father John Williamson and mother Elvira Smith Williamson lived in what is now the Smoky Mn Park.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Aunt Zelmás passing. She was a great example of a good Christian lady. She dearly loved her family and friends and had many. I know she is in a big reunion now with a lot of them that she had missed for a long time. God be with
